

A report on visit of Dr. Tim Cadman (SRF), Australia to Institute of Forest Biodiversity on 6th February 2019

Welcome Address to Dr Tim Cadman, Dr. Narsimha Reddy & Dr Amarender Reddy (Principal Scientist CRIDA) was given by Dr. G.R.S Reddy Scientist-G and Dr Ratnaker Jauhari, CF, IFS.

Senior Scientists, Technicians, Technical Assistant and Staff of IFB Hyderabad also attended the Programme. They introduced themselves and informed about their relevant experiences.

Dr. Tim Cadman is a Senior Research Fellow from Australia, and PhD from Cambridge University. He has a vast experience such as the Forest Governance, Global Governance and Climate change issues and shared his thoughts & ideas to the Scientists and staff of IFB Hyderabad. He shared his experience and his work for Australian Government, experience as NGO for 10 years and his work in United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC). He discussed about the climate regime which included Convention, Conference of Parties, Protocol /Other instruments, Secretariat, Permanent Subsidiary bodies, Finance, Implementing Agencies, National level activities, Reporting etc.

Dr Narsimha Reddy delivered talk on the Sustainable Development Goals by 2020, The various goals are : No Poverty, Zero Hunger, Good Health & Well-Being, Quality Education, Gender Equality, Clean Water & Sanitation, Affordable & Clean Energy, Decent Work & Economic Growth, Industry, Innovation & Infrastructure, Reduced inequality, sustainable cities & Communities, responsible Consumption & Production, Climate Action etc.

The next session started with the interaction by Dr Tim Cadman and other distinguished guests/scientists and Dr. G.R.S. Reddy Scientist-G, discussed about the several research activities which are going in the institute.

The session is concluded with vote of thanks by Dr. G.R.S. Reddy, Scientist-G.

Presentation by Dr. Tim Cadman

Presentation by Dr Narsimha Reddy

IFB officials with Dr. Tim Cadman
